

PARENTS EVENING

HOW TO HAVE CAREER CONVERSATIONS WITH YOUR YOUNG PERSON

WHERE

CUC Balonne, St George Training Room
Thursday 17th of November at 5.30-7.00pm

WHO

Parents of Years 10,11 & 12 students who are considering further study of work options. This talk will be useful to all parents not just those of future Uni students.

INFO

Karen Browning from the University of Southern Queensland's, Making Career Choices Program will be in St George to talk to us about:

- The evolving world of work – what has changed out there, how different it is now and will be in the future
- What is career development and why that is important for your young person
- Skills young people need for the future and how parents/carers can assist
- Transition and what that means and how to help your young person get through it whether in a work or study environment and
- And much more
